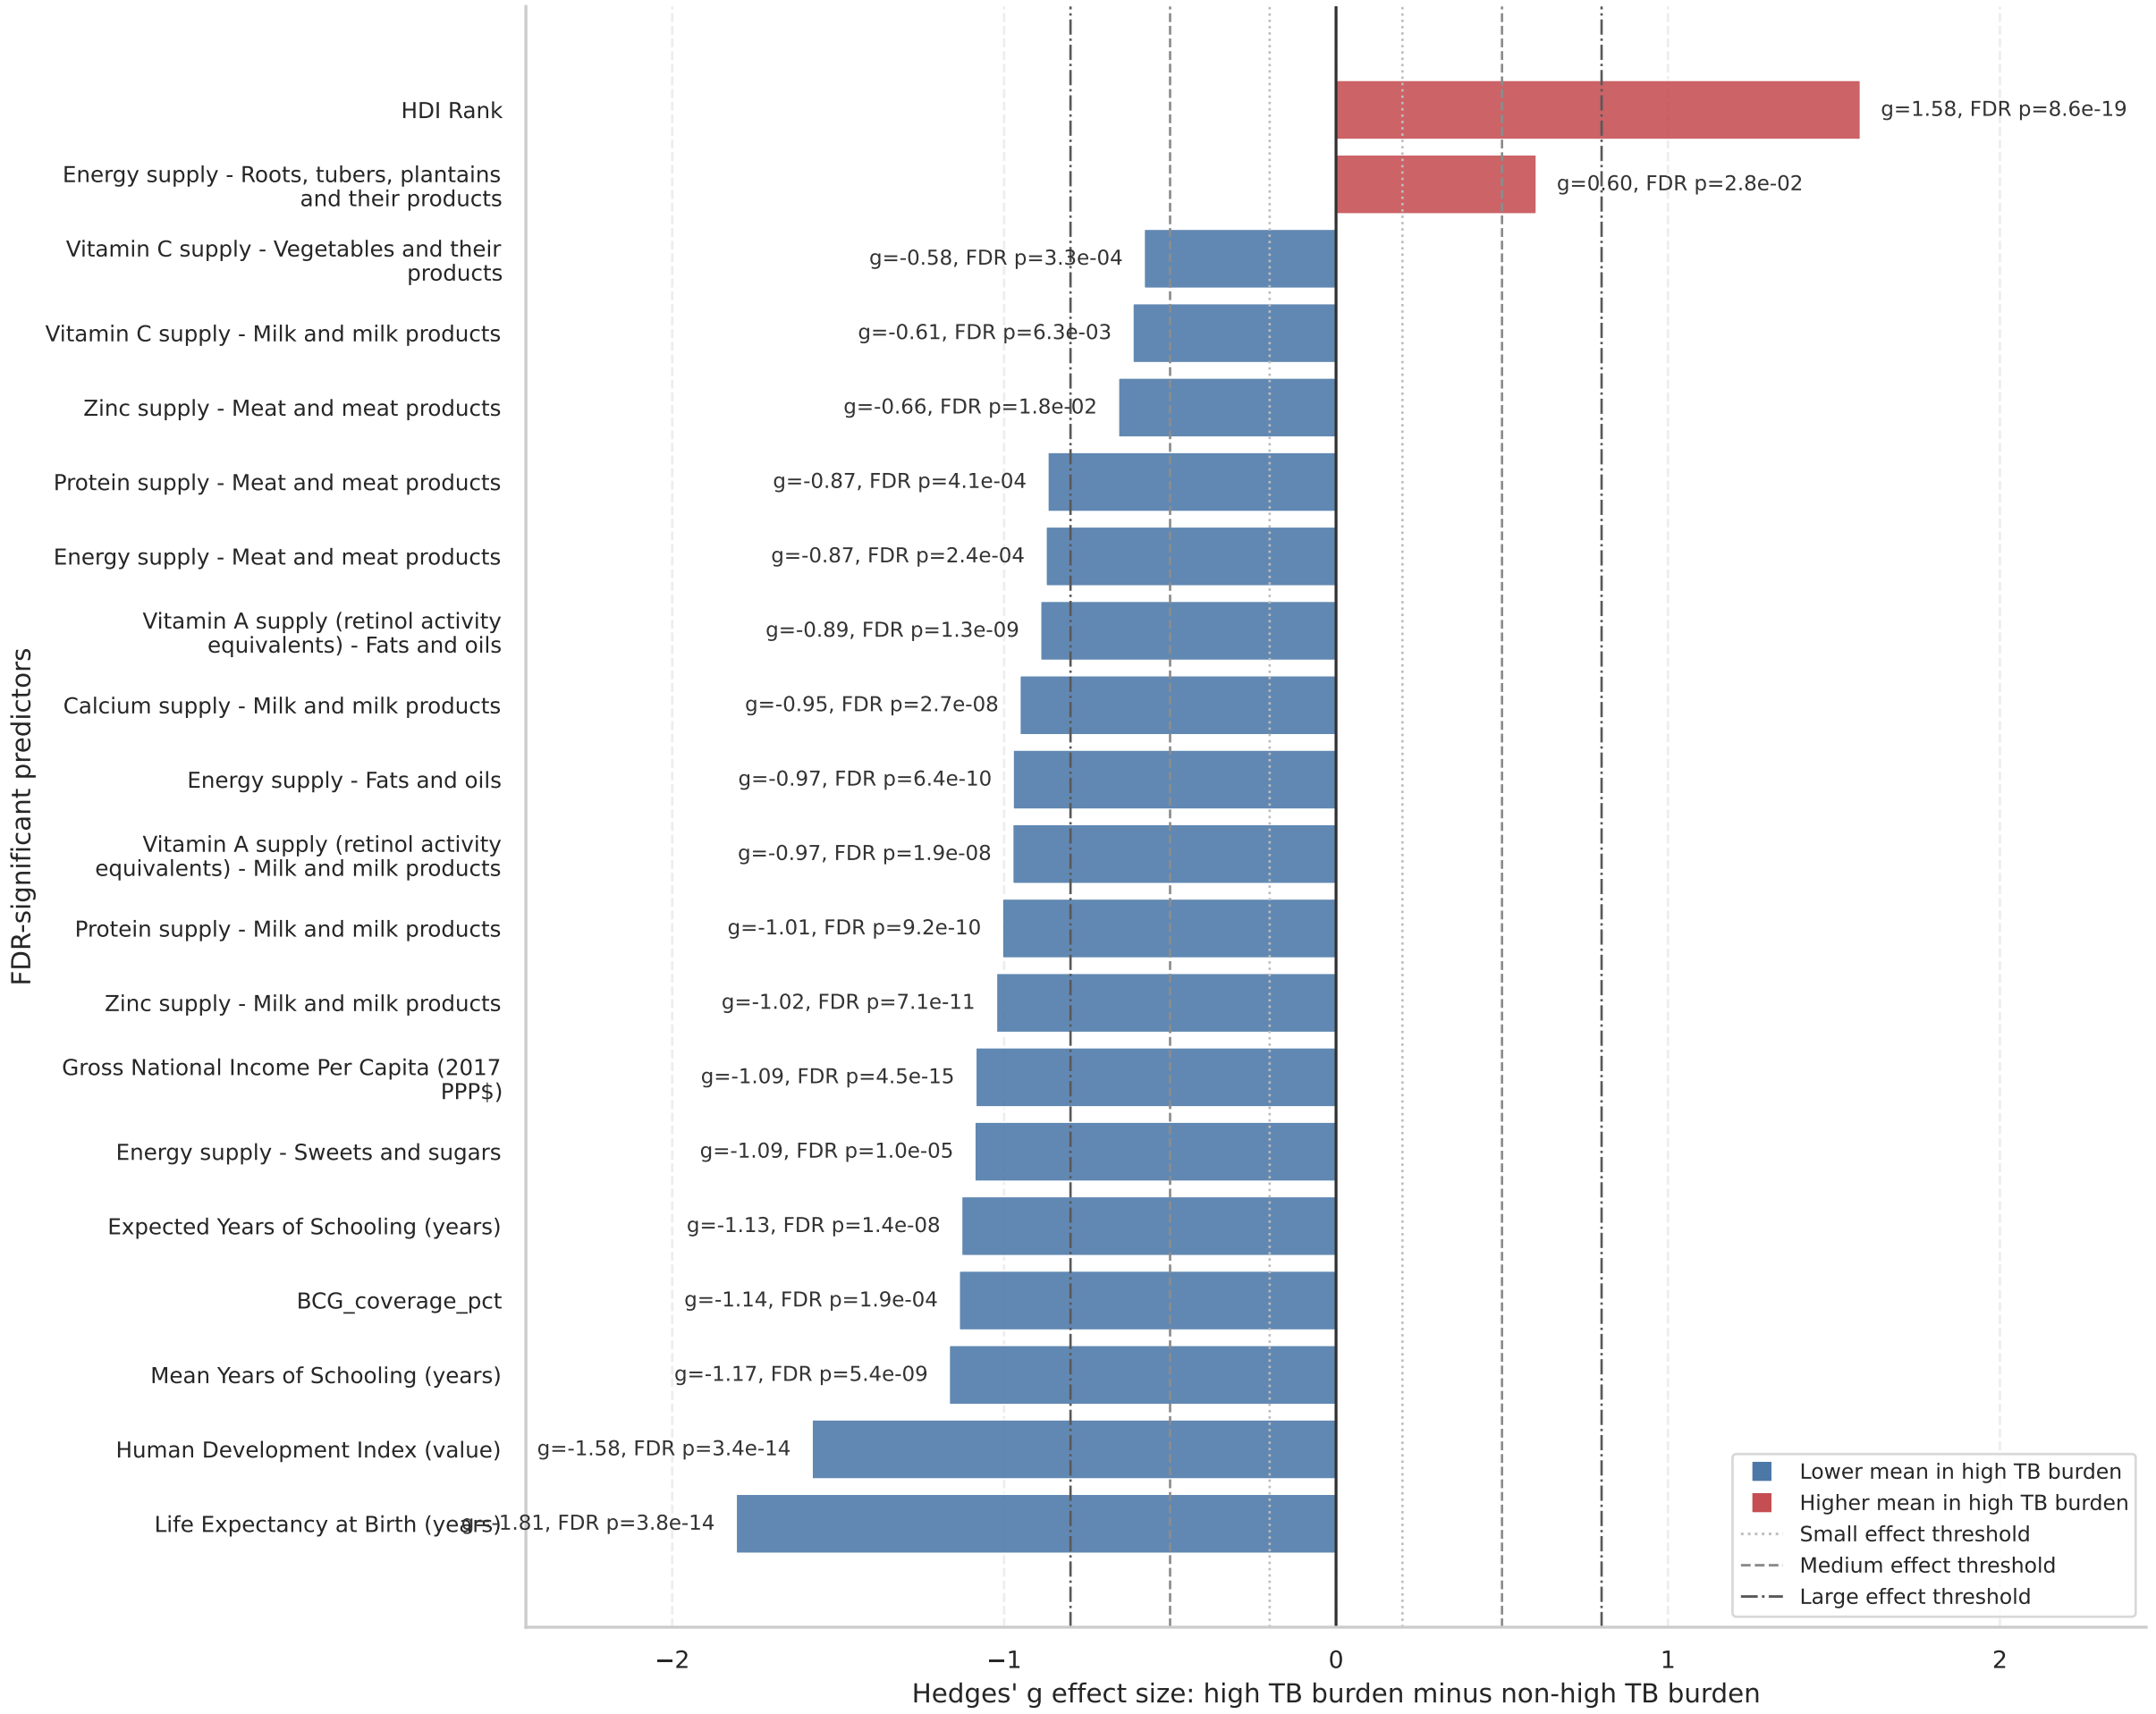
FDR-Significant Predictors from Training-Only Welch's t-test

Negative values indicate lower mean in high TB burden countries; positive values indicate higher mean in high TB burden countries.



Only predictors significant after Benjamini-Hochberg FDR correction are shown. Welch's t-tests were performed only on the training set. Hedges' g summarizes the standardized mean difference between TB burden classes.