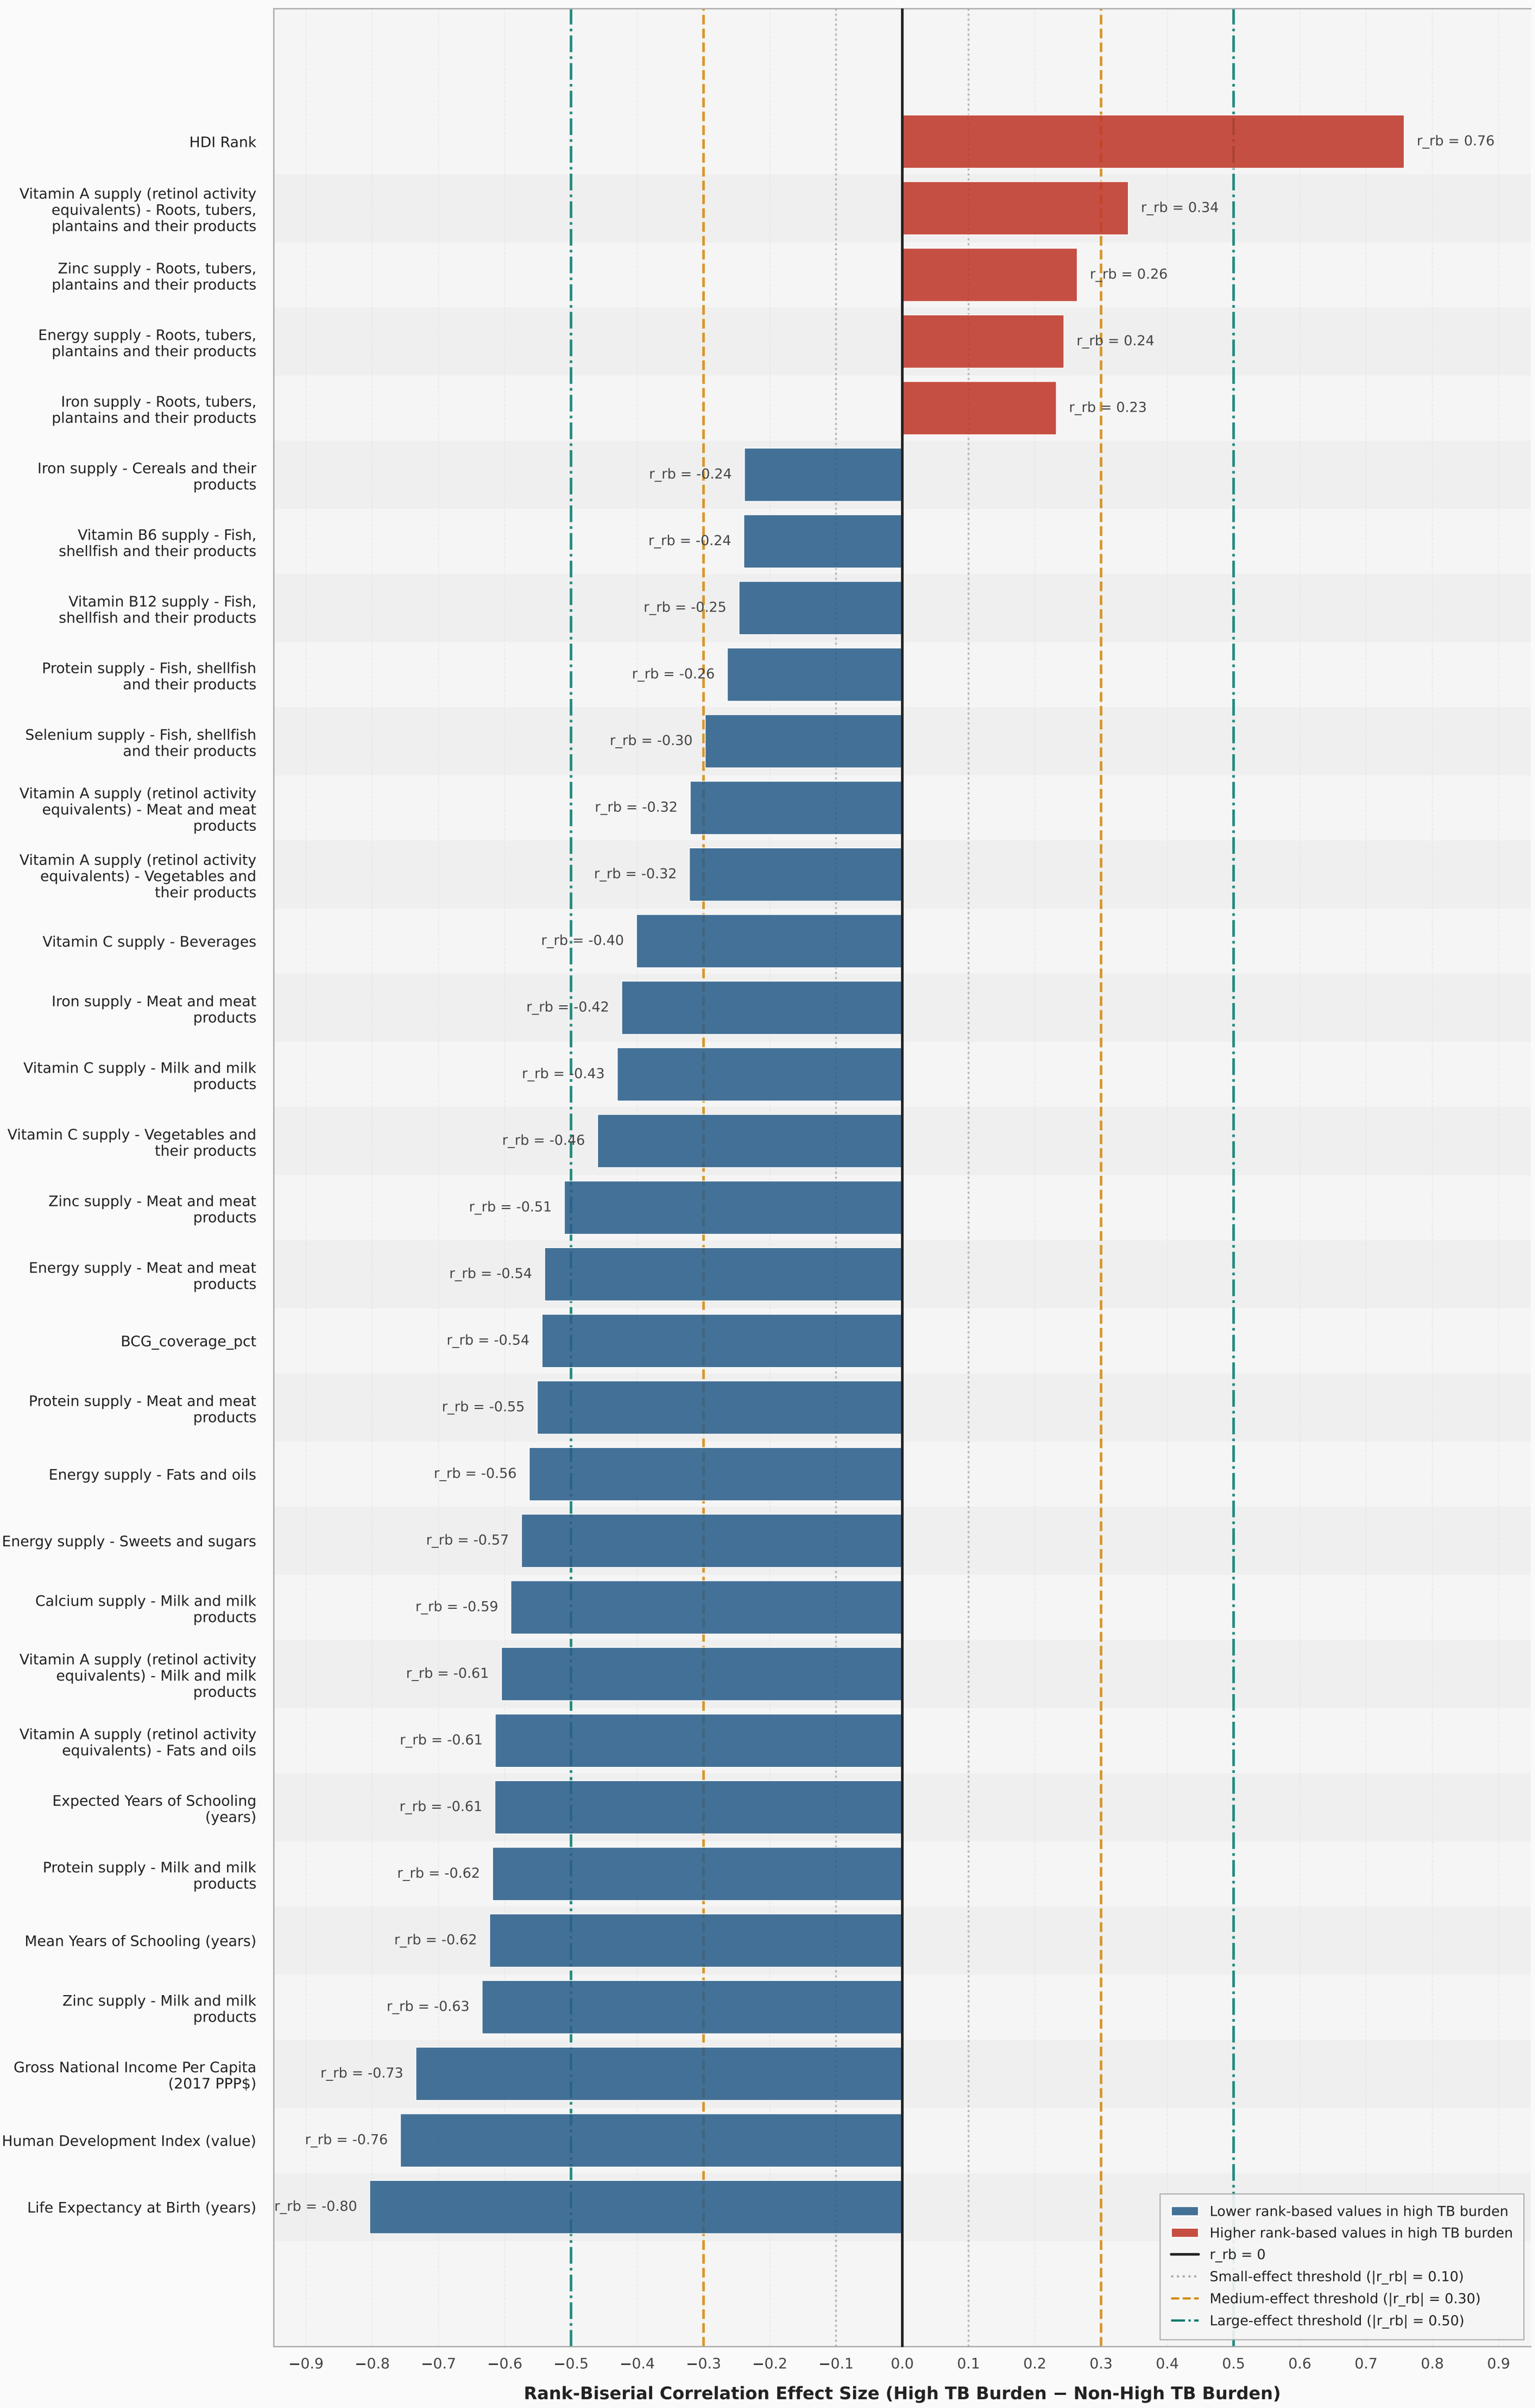
FDR-Significant Predictors from Training-Only Mann–Whitney U Test

Negative values indicate lower rank-based values in high TB burden countries; positive values indicate higher rank-based values in high TB burden countries.



Only predictors significant after Benjamini–Hochberg FDR correction are shown. Mann–Whitney U tests were performed only on the training set. Exact FDR-adjusted p-values are reported in the associated results table.